Dear Federico Anello:

The National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH) has approved a request from ----- to offer private label versions of six models of air-purifying filtering facepiece respirators to your company Mit Safety S.A. ----- approval numbers and part numbers and Mit Safety part numbers are summarized in the table below. As the private label entity, you can sell these respirators models as approved by NIOSH. You are not authorized to manufacture or modify the design of the respirator or to change any documentation on file with NIOSH supporting the NIOSH approval, including the approval label and user instructions.

NIOSH APPROVAL NUMBER	Fido Masks Co. Ltd. Part Number	Mit Safety S.A. Part Number
TC-84A-7754	F720V	F720V
TC-84A-7792	F720	F720
TC-84A-7794	F720CV	F720CV
TC-84A-7793	F720C	F720C
TC-84A-7795	F333V	F333V
TC-84A-7855	F110V	F110V

The approval holder is responsible for properly packaging, labeling, and controlling the respirators produced under this approval. At a minimum, the items that must be controlled by the approval holder are the approved user instructions, all approval labeling, all approved packaging, use claims, and the respirator design and construction details. Any change to these respirators or approval documentation without prior notification and approval is a violation of this approval and renders the certification as invalid.

As the private label assignee, your company cannot represent itself as the NIOSH approval holder. Any requests for documentation changes to these respirators must be communicated to us by -----.

Sincerely,

Adam K.
Smith -S
